CLEVELAND, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Three men in storm-swept auto skidded to the side of a bridge on South Miles avenue in Randall village this morning and for several minutes hung over the brink of the bridge close to death from a drop to the tracks, fifty feet below. The front wheels of the auto slipped through the bridge railing and only the rear wheels saved the machine from dropping to the tracks below. The men were rescued without serious injury. The heavy rain and hail storm of last night did much damage by clogging sewers in several parts of the city.

CANTON, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—A violent hail storm, which smashed windows in homes, killed poultry and damaged budding fruit trees, struck the southern part of Stark county, two miles north of Waynesburg, last night, according to word reaching Canton today.

The storm cut a swath about a mile wide and several miles long and every farmer living in its path reported damage. Wind-does in houses were smashed and the glass coverings of many chicken houses were completely wrecked.

At the home of Park Welker, a hail stone which measured five inches in circumference, went through a large plate glass window and landed on the floor in one of the rooms. Many of the hail stones were said to be as large as eggs and were strewn along the roads to a depth of several inches. Peach and plum trees just ready to blossom, were badly damaged, according to reports from the district.

At Delong, 23, farmer of near Harlanville in Champaign county, was killed when a barn collapsed on him. ## 99-Year-Leased Property To Be Partitioned

COLUMBUS, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—A 99-year lease renewable for 99 years, now owned by the Business Men's Club, Cincinnati, is to be partitioned to satisfy heirs of the Ohio supreme court today.

Albert T. Brown, claiming an undivided one-fourth interest in the property at three and Ninth streets, filed a petition for partition. The courts found in favor of Brown.

The appellate court, finding its opinion in conflict with another appellate court decision which had held that heirs and devisees of a person who had executed a 99-year lease renewable forever, with option to purchase, could not compel partition on its own motion, certified the case to the state supreme court for review.

Strike And Organizers Hurt The Coke Fields

PITTSBURGH, PA., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Influence of union organizers and the strike are being more strongly felt in the coke regions of Pennsylvania, where non-union labor is employed, events of yesterday demonstrated. Approximately 1,000 miners in the Cambria region quitting their work, left eight of the H. C. Frick Coke Company plants idle or greatly hampered.

More than 250 non-union workers of the Greensburg Coal Company went out yesterday.

John Brophy, president of District No. 2 of the mine workers' organization, yesterday sent a letter to Governor Sprout, of this state, asking his intervention on behalf of the 52,000 organized miners of central Pennsylvania and their families in the manner in which the state police are handling the strike.

The letter charged the operators with importing gunmen to intimidate the miners and otherwise alleged unfair discrimination against them and their families.

Firemen Have Narrow Escape

CLEVELAND, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Four firemen narrowly escaped death while fighting a blaze this morning that swept through part of a restaurant and forced scores of men and women guests of the Cuyahoga hotel on lower Prospect avenue, to scurry through smoke-filled hallways to the streets in their night clothes. An over-heated range is believed to have started the blaze. The property damage is small. The four firemen, overcome by smoke, were carried out by their comrades and taken to hospitals. Their condition is not serious.

Hughes Protests The Cut In Navy Personnel

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Reduction of navy personnel to 67,000 enlisted men, as provided in the naval appropriation bill, now being considered by the house, would reduce the American navy below the 5-5-3 ratio, established by the arms conference, and would "be most serious to the interests of the United States," Secretary Hughes today wrote Representative Rogers, Republican, Massachusetts.

"Women In U. S. Equals Of Men; Marriage Vows Should Be Same"

NEW YORK, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Women in the United States are in nearly all respects the equal of men and therefore the promises and vows of the man and woman at marriage should be reciprocal.

Such is the substance of a statement made today by George Zabriskie, member of the commission on revision of the book of common prayer of the Episcopal Church, in explanation of some changes the commission will recommend to the general convention of the church in Portland, Oregon, next September.

In reviewing the marriage service, the commission considered, he said, that the status of women has greatly changed since the service was incorporated in the prayer book in 1789, and has changed far more since the compilation of the medieval rite of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries from which it was derived.

He declared that the duty of obedience now had been abrogated and that women enjoyed both in law and through social convention privileges and immunities which were even denied to men.

And so the commission, he said, had decided it was necessary that the obsolete part of the marriage—the promise of the woman to obey—be made to conform to the facts of life.

$500,000 Damage Suits Filed Against Penna; Result Of Accident

TOLEDO, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Suits aggregating $500,000 have been filed in federal court here against the Pennsylvania railroad as an outgrowth of the Van Wert school bus accident, which occurred on the Dalby road near that city January 10 and which resulted in the death of seven children and the injury to several others.

Seven suits totaling $235,000 were filed yesterday. The actions were brought by the administrators or next of kin for the children killed or injured in the accident. Those for whom suits were filed yesterday are: Paul Miller, $500,000; Lucile Fackler, $25,000; George W. Fackler, $10,000; Josephine Stegman, $20,000; August Stegman, $50,000; Roland L. Imier, $25,000.

Russians Want Japs, Rumanians Barred

GENOA, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—At this afternoon's meeting of the principal conference committee, which is to consider Russian affairs, Foreign Minister Chicherin, of Russia, protested against the presence of the Rumanian and Japanese delegates, because Rumania was occupying Bessarabia and Japan was occupying portions of Siberia.

Premier Facta, of Italy, who was presiding over the committee, declined to consider the Russian protest, giving as his reason that all the countries invited to the conference has a right to be represented on its committees.

MUST DISCUSS DISARMAMENT

GENOA, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—George Chicherin, head of the Russian soviet delegation to the economic conference, issued a statement declaring it useless to discuss the reconstruction of Europe without also discussing disarmament.

Amelioration of present conditions is impossible while the "imperialistic countries" continue vast expenditures for the maintenance of large armies, he said.

Admit Russians and Germans After Dispute

GENOA, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Admission of Russian and German representatives to the principal committee of the economic conference was strongly opposed today by both French and Belgian representatives. Premier Lloyd George, together with Premier Facta and Foreign Minister Schanzer, of Italy, intervened, however, and their conciliatory attitude finally resulted in the admittance of both the Russians and the Germans.

France-Russia Row Lead to Crisis

The opposition to the presence of the delegates from the two countries was an outgrowth of the Franco-Russian incident at the opening session of the conference. Barthou, for France, but more especially M. Thomey, for Belgium, placed themselves in opposition to the German and Russian representatives, being admitted to the principal committee, while the representatives of the smaller countries which fought with the allies were excluded.

Premiers Facta and Lloyd George and Signor Schanzer maintained it would be impossible not to permit the Russians and Germans to be represented on the committee, which was to deal chiefly with the problems affecting Germany and Russia.

Need Co-operation of Russia and Germany

They argued that the exclusion of these delegates would stultify the objects of the committee because, all were in agreement that the co-operation of Russia and Germany was indispensable to the reconstruction of Europe.

Premier Thomey, in his argument, declared the Germans were unworthy of taking part in the work of a committee of such importance in association with the representatives of honorable countries.

Discussion Became Heated

The discussion became so heated that Mr. Lloyd George declared emphatically that if such an intra-sanguine spirit was going to prevail, it might be as well immediately to break up the conference, the principal object of which was to readjust Russia and Germany to the European family.

The work of conciliation under taken by Premier Facta and Signor Schanzer was finally successful in bridging the crisis and securing the admission of the Russian and German representatives. The discussion over membership of the committee arose at the first meeting of today this forenoon. As originally planned it comprised British, French, Italian, Belgian, Japanese, German and Russian delegates. In addition to these, representatives of Poland, Rumania, Switzerland and Sweden were admitted this afternoon after the morning's argument in which Premier Thomey, of Belgium, urged the desirability of having the smaller countries represented.

Long Fight On Bill In Prospect In Congress

Comparison of the tariff rates of the proposed senate bill with those of the Payne-Aldrich and the Underwood measures will be found on Page 11.

Higher Than Payne-Aldrich Act

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The administration tariff bill as rewritten by the senate finance committee Republicans on the basis for foreign valuation with provisions for flexible rates as recommended by President Harding was presented today to the senate. It was announced that it would be taken up April 21. A long fight is in prospect, with some estimates that it might continue for three months.

Higher Than Payne-Aldrich Act
Taken as a whole, the bill, according to estimates of committee experts, averages slightly higher than the Payne-Aldrich law, the last Republican protection tariff act. As compared with the house measure, the specific rates generally are higher, but the ad valorem rates generally are lower as such rates in the house bill were based on American valuation. Treasury experts have estimated roughly that the bill will raise from $200,000,000 to $250,000,000 of revenue annually, but they have not yet had time to complete accurate calculations. The house measure was estimated to raise $300,000,000, while the Underwood law yielded between $200,000,000 and $250,000,000.

Disagree On Living Costs

There is a division of opinion among farmers as to the probable effect of the measure would have on the cost of living. In the official report accompanying the bill, it is stated that the committee majority had endeavored to recommend rates that will afford protection to American industry and permit them to pay wages sufficient to enable our workmen to maintain an American standard of living.

Protection For Agriculture

With regard to the agricultural schedule, one of the longest in the bill, the report said the committee adopted the policy of giving to agriculture the measure of protection that has been accorded to other industries, with due consideration to the needs of all sections and of all industries.

The rates in this schedule generally average higher than those in the house bill and include a larger number of items which were on the free list in the Underwood bill, but placed on the dutiable list in the emergency tariff act now in force.

As a general rule, the rates written into the agricultural schedule are about at the level demanded by the (Continued on Page Eight)

BEGIN HERE TODAY

In the summer of 1914, Mark Sabre finds that he is estranged from human sympathy and understanding with the sole exception of Lady Nona Tybar, an old sweetheart, now unhappily married.

Sabre's prosaic and snobbish wife, Mabel, fails to understand her husband's poetic and whimsical temperament. In business he is undermined by a jealous associate in the firm of Fortune, East and Sabre, and a promised partnership is diverted from him to Twining. At this point, Nona's life with Tybar becomes intolerable and she asks Sabre to take her away. War is declared and Sabre rushes to secure a commission. He speaks to Colonel Barratt of the Plinks.

Sabre is denied the commission because of physical condition. Young Perch asks Sabre to persuade his (Perch's) mother to consent to him going to war and Sabre promises and tries to get Effie Bright to stay with her. Bright, however, doesn't take kindly to the plan.

Effie goes to Perch's. Young Perch joins the army. Tybar is a hero in the war. Sabre is again rejected, is laughed at by his wife but he writes his troubles to Nona Tybar. Nona writes to Sabre and her husband but her husband does not write back but writes to other women in the town.

Continued From Our Last Issue. Nona had written of it in rhyming words. She finished in beautiful ardor of the enthusiasm she joined with Sabre's at his opening words of their meeting; but she ended with a sad little laugh. "And then?" she said.

"What do you mean, Nona, 'And then'?"

"She took a letter from her bag. 'I only got this this morning just as I was coming away. It's in reply to the one I wrote him about his V. C. O. Oh, Marko, so splendid, so utterly splendid as he is, and then, to be like this. Look, he says he's just got leave and he's going to spend it in Paris! One of his women is there. That Mrs. Winifred. He's taken up with her again. He says, 'Poor thing, she's all alone in Paris. I know how sorry you will feel for her, and I feel I ought to go and look after her. I know you will agree with me, I'll tell her you sent me. That will amuse and please her so.'"

"She touched her eyes with her handkerchief. 'It rather hurts, Marko. It's not that I mind his going. It's just what he would do. But it's the way he tells me. He just says it like that deliberately because he knows it will hurt. So utterly splendid, Marko, and so utterly graceless.' She gave her little note of—"

We Know Batteries Like a Book!

Repairing batteries may look easy—but it isn't!

To be successful, a repair man has to know just how to handle the plates that hold the active material that keeps life in the battery. He has to know how to take care of the insulators that keep the plates apart. He has to know when it is cheaper for you to buy a new battery than to have the old one repaired.

Bring your battery in to Headquarters—no matter whether it's a Willard or not. We'll tell you what it needs, if anything, how much the cost will be—and whether repairs will pay or not.

Why Suffer With Piles

When Pyramid Pile Suppositories Bring Such Blessed Relief

Yes, Pyramid Pile Suppositories are simply wonderful to ease pain, relieve itching, allay that agonizing sense of pressure and enable you to rest and sleep with comfort.

The fact that almost every drug-gist in the U. S. and Canada carries Pyramid in stock at 50 cents a box shows how highly these Suppositories are regarded. Take no substitute. You can try them free by sending your name and address to Pyramid Drug Co., 605 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

He stared at her.

The second Christmas of the war came. The evening before the last day of the Old Year was to have given Sabre a rare pleasure to which he had been immensely looking forward. He was to have spent it with Mr. Fergus. The old chess and across-the-evenings hardly ever happened now. It was to have been a real young evening; but it proved not very long.

At ten o'clock profound gymnastics of the mind in search of a hidden word beginning with a and ending with l were interrupted by the entry

Easter Suits with Two Pairs of Trousers for the Boys

If there is anything a boy dislikes, it is to have a suit that is so touchy as to betray his every action when coming in from a play stunt. Boys like suits in which they can run, jump, play ball and other sports without hurting them. Knowing that it takes good stout materials and workmanship to make such suits, we confine our buying to just that sort. And in addition there is an extra pair of trousers for you know sooner or later, Johnny is going to have a slide on the cellar door and when the seat is snagged, he still has another pair of pants for Sunday.

Might as well buy the boy's spring suit this week and let them blossom forth on Easter with the rest. Good suits at $12.50 and up.

of the maid. "Please, Mr. Sabre, I think it's for you, Mr. Sabre." "For me? Who on earth?" He opened it. He did not recognize the writing on the envelope. He unfolded it. Ah! "Freddie's killed. Please do come at once. I think she's dying—E. B." CHAPTER VII

HE was alone in the room where Mrs. Perch lay—not even Effie. One o'clock. This war!

The doctor had been and was coming again in the morning. There was nothing to be done, he had said; just watch her.

Watch her? How long had he been standing at the foot of the huge bed—the biggest bed he had ever seen—and what was there to watch? "Sinking," the doctor had said. In process here before his eyes, but not to be seen by them, awful and mysterious things. Death with practiced fingers about his awful and mysterious surgery of separating the spirit from the flesh, the soul from the body, the incorruptible from the corruptible.

But Young Perch was dead. Young Perch was killed. It was real. He was here. This war!

He felt very cold. He moved from the bed and replenished the fire and crunched beside it.

There was some strange sound in the room. He had dozed in a chair. Some strange sound, or had he imagined it? He sat up tensely and listened. It was her breathing, a harsh and labored sound. He stepped quickly to the bed and looked and then was into the passage and called loudly, "Effie! Effie!"

Frightening, terrible, agonizing. He was kneeling on one side of the bed, Effie at the other. The extreme moment was coming to her that lay between them. She was moaning. He looked at her. "Please, Mr. Sabre, I think it's for you, Mr. Sabre." "For me? Who on earth?" He opened it. He did not recognize the writing on the envelope. He unfolded it. Ah! "Freddie's killed. Please do come at once. I think she's dying—E. B." CHAPTER VII

"WHY DO YOU LOVE GOD?" HE ASKED.

Oh, terrible! Beyond endurance, agonizing. It was old Mrs. Perch that stood there whimpering, shrieking, upon the threshold of that huge abyss, wide as space, dark as night. It was no spirit. It was just that very feeble Mrs. Perch with her fumbling hands and her moving lips. Look here, Young Perch would never allow her even to cross a road without him! How in pity was she to take this frightful step? He twisted up all his emotions into an appeal of tremendous intensity. "Young Perch! Come here! Your mother! Young Perch, come here!"

Telling it, once, to Nona, he said, "I don't know what happened. They talk of self-hypnotism. Perhaps it was that. I know I made a most frightful effort saying 'Young Perch.' I had to. I could see her—that poor terrified thing. Something had to be done. Someone had to go to her. I said it like a nightmare, bursting to get out of it. 'Young Perch. Come here.' Anyway, there it is, Nona. I heard them. It was imagination, of course. But I heard them.

He heard. "Now then, Mother! Don't be frightened. Here I am, Mother. Come on, Mother. One step, Mother. Only one. I can't reach you. You must take just one step. Look, Mother, here's my hand. Can't you see my hand?"

"Now, Mother, I tell you it isn't. Do just trust me. Do just come."

"I don't, Freddie. I can't, Freddie. I can't, I can't."

"You must, Mother, you must. Look, look, here I am. It's I, Freddie. Don't cry, Mother. Just trust yourself entirely to me. You know how you always can trust me. Look, here's my hand. Just one tiny step and you will touch it. I know you feel ill, darling Mother. You won't any, any more, once you touch my hand. But I can't come any nearer, dearest. You must. You—Ah, brave, beloved Mother—now!"

He heard Effie's voice. "Oh, she's dead! She's dead!"

Dead? He stared upon her dead face. Where was gone that mask? Whence had come this glory? That inhabitant of this body, in act of having looked back, and his look had done this thing. It had closed the door upon a rattle house, and looked, and left a temple. It had departed from beneath a mask, and looked, and that which had been masked now was beautified.

Young Perch!

"Benjy met a bear And the bear ate Benjy. The bear was bulgy And the bulge was Benjy."

The stout woman's bulges—while somewhat similar in appearance to that of the greedy bear—are not due to a hastily gulped down "Benjy" but to a carelessly chosen corset. This error can be easily remedied by a visit to our up-to-date Corset Department where our courtesies and efficient corsetiers are always glad to serve you.

A Nemo Self-Reducing Corset

has banished the bulges of many an over-plump woman. It gives anatomically correct support and control while its marvelous Self-Reducing Straps—an exclusive Nemo feature—gently massage away undesirable abdominal flesh. The figure gradually resumes its normally smooth, stylish shapeliness.

Illustrated No. 403

For the stout woman of medium height with excess flesh on lower abdomen and in groin section. Semi-elastic In-Curve Back gives symmetrical lines to the lower back with ease in any position. White cantilever; sizes 24 to 36 $7.75.

Also Illustrated Circlet No. 11111

"It's More Than A Brassiere" and gives the same good lines above the waist as a Nemo Corset does below. Pink or white ballies; sizes 34 to 48—$10.00.

A Good Task Accomplished Is The Selection Of Children's Easter Togs

Many mothers like to get the children's Easter and warm weather wardrobes all taken care of before starting on their own. That is why we have assembled such complete warm weather selections of children's apparel so early in the season. This varied showing presents an unusual opportunity to select Easter garments for the children, as well as really affording you an opportunity to purchase the season's requirements. From crisp tub suits for the lad who hasn't yet learned his A. B. C.'s to feilly and "party-fied" frocks for girls who are beginning to feel grown up, mothers will take real pleasure in choosing from these attractive assortments so surprisingly moderate in price.

Little Girls Hope The Easter Rabbit Will Bring Them New Dresses

A frock of taffeta in a quaintly crisp style or cute little models in pongee, to say nothing of the colored and white voiles and dainty white organdies, all wait here to be worn on Easter day. And how your little girl would love such a frock for Easter. She will need one, of course, a good many times during the season and since she will so enjoy wearing it on Easter when her little friends are dressed up, the thoughtful mother will choose in plenty of time. A good selection of the silk dresses may be had at $9.50 while the tubable varieties may be purchased in good values as low as $5.00.

My! What Cute Coats And Capes For Children

The styles just like mother's, the colors so attractive and appealing to children and the qualities and workmanship of such high value that few parents can resist the temptation, especially when the little girls need just such a garment. We are showing an excellent line of girls' coats and capes at $11.98.

Mother Isn't The Only One Who Wants An Easter Hat

No, sir, for every day little Marys, Janes and Marthas come tripping into our children's store and they art for all the world just like some mothers do when they visit the millinery shop, so enthusiastic, so delighted with the styles, that they want to put them right on. After all, it is only natural that the little girls should have a love for nice hats such as these Madge Evans models. For that reason, we are selling numbers of them in light and dark, in Milans, Leghorns and Organdies. We have a popular priced showing at $3.95.

Boys' Guaranteed Tubable Garments

In showing the line of wash suits bearing the Kaynee trade-mark we feel that we are offering the very best that is made. Many season's experience have proven that they are satisfactory, even on the roughest of children. They wear, they wash, they hold their shape and color and are made up in the latest styles we have seen. We are sure no parent could ask for more. Besides Kaynee wash suits we are featuring the Kaynee shirts and blouses for boys. Every garment absolutely guaranteed as to workmanship and color.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I am writing to you for your advice. I play a violin and I like my finger nails till they grow. Please answer as soon as possible.

WAS TO KNOW.
I use your will power and quit biting my finger nails. I would be ashamed to think I was a slave to my habit. If you haven't any will power, consult a physician and get something for your nerves. In the meantime, you might wear rubber finger stalls, or put quinine or bitter aloes on your finger tips.

Dear Dolly—Will you please give me some information of an egg plant? How they grow, their use and the most delicious way to cook them?

EGGPLANT.
The eggplant is a solanaceous plant of East Indian origin, allied to the potato. It is white or dark purple and is highly esteemed as a garden vegetable. There are three ways of cooking eggplant—fried, baked and poached.

Fried—Cut the eggplant in slices about a quarter of an inch thick; pare them; sprinkle with salt and place one upon another, placing over them a plate with a weight on top, to stand for an hour; remove the water; dip the slices in beaten egg, to which has been added a tablespoon of water, half a tablespoon of salt and half a teaspoon of pepper. Then dip the slices in dried bread crumbs spread on a dish for twenty minutes or more and fry in deep fat.

Baked—Make a dressing as for stuffed peppers, using, however, a little more salt, pepper and butter. Cut the eggplant in two lengthwise; scrape out the inside; wash it fine; mix with the dressing and return to the shells. Place on a pan in the oven and bake forty-five minutes, serve in shells, placing a dolly under each half.

Broiled Eggplant—Slice the eggplant and drain it for frying; spread the slices on a dish; season with salt and pepper; broil with olive oil; sprinkle with dried bread crumbs and broil.

Dear Dolly—What do you think of people who sit on their front porch and make fun of every person who passes by, particularly poor hard working men, who work all day and make a thing only what they have on their backs. They don't own their own homes and are doing the best they know how to make an honest living. I haven't any use for such people. How about you?

MABEL.
Making fun of others is some people's idea of having a good time. They haven't brains enough to talk about something worth while, and they are so ill-bred they haven't sense enough to keep quiet. I feel sorry for them, don't you?

Dear Dolly—Do you think it would be all right for me to move to Columbus and keep roomers? Do you think that I could make good at keeping a rooming house? I lost my husband some time ago and my sister and I and a girl friend of hers thought we would go to Columbus and try our luck at keeping roomers. Dolly should I sell my house here and buy another one or rent it and put a house up there. I can get a

RHEUMATISM IS ENDED AND HE'S GAINED 16 LBS

Dyspepsia Has Also Disappeared Since Taking Taulac And He Feels Twenty Years Younger Declares Youngstown Citizen.

"I thought old age was getting the best of me, but I know this was a mistake. All my troubles I am convinced came from my stomach because now that Taulac has made it as sound as a dollar I am like a new man in every way. Rheumatism has left me, my kidneys are in good order and I am able to eat, sleep and work better than in years."

Taulac is sold in Portsmouth by Fisher & Strick Pharmacy and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisements.

OUT OUR WAY

BY WILLIAMS

Open Break Averted

ment, was accepted as a fling at the French military policy by Louis Barthou, who heatedly declared that France would refuse to discuss disarmament at Genoa.

Must Lead to Disarmament

While Mr. Lloyd George appealed to the delegates to adhere to the agenda as adopted by the supreme council at Cannes, he made the declaration that "unless the Genoa conference leads to disarmament, it will be a failure."

The keynote of the conference was sounded by Mr. Lloyd George, when he outlined the "only conditions on which we can consent to deal with others," this supposedly referring specifically to the Russians.

Tells Russians What They Must Do

"The first is," he said, "when a country enters into contractual obligations with another country or its nationals for value received, that contract cannot be repudiated whenever the country changes its government without returning value. The second is that no country can wage war on the institutions of another. The third is that one nation shall not engage in aggressive operations against the territory of another. The fourth is that the nationals of one country shall be entitled to impartial justice in the courts of another."

Any nation which rejected these "elementary conditions of civilized intercourse," he declared, "could not be expected to be received into the comity of nations."

The principal committee of the conference, composed of the chief delegates of all states represented and attended by experts of various delegations, assembled this morning in the Palazzo Reale.

Extraordinary Police Precautions

Extraordinary police precautions were taken at the palace, and forces of military and police lined the main street leading to the meeting place.

The delegates today made every preparation to settle down to the serious technical work of the congress, accepting for the moment at least, the idea expressed yesterday by Mr. Lloyd George and President Poincaré that the agenda as arranged at Cannes provided a sufficient safeguard against the danger of working off new and controversial problems were added.

Tariff Bill

senate Republican farm tariff bill. Farm Rate Not Exceed 25 Per Cent.

Committee experts stated, however, that with few exceptions, the rates in the agricultural schedule would not exceed 25 per cent. This schedule embraces meats, eggs, vegetables generally, fruits and poultry, all other products of the farm. The duty on wheat was fixed at 35 cents a bushel, the same as under the emergency act, but five cents above the figure fixed in the House bill. Under the Democratic tariff act wheat was free.

The basic wool rate of 33 cents a pound on the second column was written into the bill, also was that asked by the Republican farm tariff bill. This rate is eight cents higher than that in the House bill and is about on a level with that in Schedule K of the Payne-Aldrich act. Because of the different classifications, wool is difficult to compare the new wool schedule with Schedule K, but Senator Smoot, of Utah, who drafted the new schedule, is authority for the statement that some of the rates are as high as those in the Payne-Aldrich measure, while others are somewhat lower.

Because of the increase in the basic wool rate, the duties on manufacturers proposed are higher than those in the Fordney bill. Under the Underwood law, wool was free.

Cattle Hides Off Free List

Cattle hides were taken from the free list for the first time in many years and a duty of two cents on green and four cents on dried proposed. These are about the rates asked for by the agricultural tariff bill. The majority report said these duties were "necessary to equalize the difference in competitive conditions," and added that the imposition of a duty on hides made it necessary to provide compensatory duties upon leather made from cattle hides and the various leather manufacturers, such as shoes and harness. The rates on shoes were fixed at from six cents a pair to 12 cents a pair and five per cent ad valorem.

Under a last minute change made in the dye provision, the president could continue the present embargo on a licensing system for one year beyond the period of one year from the date of the signing of the measure as originally provided. Rates on dyes were fixed at seven cents a pound and sixty per cent on finished dyes. The dye interests had asked for a five year embargo, arguing that this was necessary to protect the year time industry from German competition.

Long Staple Cotton On Dutiable List

For the first time it is proposed that long staple cotton be placed on the dutiable list with the rate at seven cents a pound as compared to the 15 cents asked for by the agricultural tariff bill. Short staple cotton is retained on the free list. The rates on cotton manufactures are generally higher than those in the Underwood law, while some are above those in the Payne-Aldrich act and others somewhat lower.

The duties proposed in the silk and silk goods schedule is said officially to be at about the level of those in the Payne-Aldrich. They average rates and considerably higher than those in the Underwood act.

Tobacco Rates Much Higher

Rates on tobacco in the new bill are much higher than those in the Fordney measure and the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood laws. The duty proposed on unmanufactured wrapper and filler is $2.25 a pound, compared with $2.10 in the Fordney and $1.85 in the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood. The duty on stemmed filler and wrapper is $2.10 a pound, compared with $1.85 in the Fordney and $1.70 in the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood. The duty on $1 a pound and 25 per cent ad valorem proposed on cigars and cigarettes, as the same as in the Fordney, Payne-Aldrich and Underwood bills.

In the case of cottons, the committee agreed on rates averaging more with the Payne-Aldrich than those in the Underwood bill. The Payne-Aldrich duty of 7 1/2 per cent per pound on steel rails was agreed upon. Under the Underwood act, the rate is free. The rate on automobiles, trucks and parts is 25 per cent in the Payne-Aldrich and the 25 per cent in the Underwood act.

Glass Industry Protected

The glass provisions in the Fordney bill were rewritten and the majority report said "the necessity of maintaining and strengthening the newly developed glass industries, including the manufacture of optical and chemical glass, has been met by writing in the rates that should encourage research and expansion of the domestic industry."

"These duties," the report added, "are not higher than actually required to prevent waste of the capital now invested in these industries."

Aside from hides and shoes and a large number of agricultural products, important articles taken from the free list include sewing machines and cash registers, mechanical wool pulp, coconut oil, soybean oil and cotton seed oil, crude magnesite, lava mowers, settees and sleds.

Tin Bars, Blocks, Pigs, on Free List

Tin bars, blocks and pigs were returned to the free list from the Fordney bill, as were shingles, manganese ore and bananas.

Petroleum, crude and refined, also was left on the free list. The original Fordney bill proposed a duty, but the house struck out the provision. Other important items on the free list include agricultural implements; linotype and all typesetting machines; typewriters, shoe machinery; anti-rabies, vaccines, serums, bibles, binding twine, books, printed and bound more than 20 years; button, gold or silver; clock unmanufactured; coal, coke, cinder and cinder blocks; coffee, ruins of gold, silver or other metals; copper ore, grasses and fibers; gums, gums and resins; gun powder; ice, crude India rubber; iron ore; jet, asphalt, manganese oxide and iron; newspapers and periodicals; oil cake and oil cake meal; ores of gold, silver, nickel, parchment and vellum; mother of pearl and shells in natural state; crude phosphates; platinum in ingots, bars or plates; quinine sulphate; raw pulp; sea baring and fur fish; shrimps; tobacco and other shell fish; raw silk; silk cocoons and silk waste; sulphur; tar and pitch of woods; turpentine and rosin; wax, barbed wire; logs, timber, round, manufactured, hewn, squared or sawed boards, planks, deals and other lumber not specifically provided for.

The duties proposed in the silk and silk goods schedule is said officially to be at about the level of those in the Payne-Aldrich. They average rates and considerably higher than those in the Underwood act.

Rates on tobacco in the new bill are much higher than those in the Fordney measure and the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood laws. The duty on stemmed filler and wrapper is $2.10 a pound, compared with $1.85 in the Fordney and $1.70 in the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood. The duty on $1 a pound and 25 per cent ad valorem proposed on cigars and cigarettes, as the same as in the Fordney, Payne-Aldrich and Underwood bills.

In the case of cottons, the committee agreed on rates averaging more with the Payne-Aldrich than those in the Underwood bill. The Payne-Aldrich duty of 7 1/2 per cent per pound on steel rails was agreed upon. Under the Underwood act, the rate is free. Long Staple Cotton On Dutiable List

For the first time it is proposed that long staple cotton be placed on the dutiable list with the rate at seven cents a pound as compared to the 15 cents asked for by the agricultural tariff bill. Short staple cotton is retained on the free list. The rates on cotton manufactures are generally higher than those in the Underwood law, while some are above those in the Payne-Aldrich act and others somewhat lower.

The duties proposed in the silk and silk goods schedule is said officially to be at about the level of those in the Payne-Aldrich. They average rates and considerably higher than those in the Underwood act.

Tobacco Rates Much Higher

Rates on tobacco in the new bill are much higher than those in the Fordney measure and the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood laws. The duty proposed on unmanufactured wrapper and filler is $2.25 a pound, compared with $2.10 in the Fordney and $1.85 in the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood. The duty on stemmed filler and wrapper is $2.10 a pound, compared with $1.85 in the Fordney and $1.70 in the Payne-Aldrich and Underwood. The duty on $1 a pound and 25 per cent ad valorem proposed on cigars and cigarettes, as the same as in the Fordney, Payne-Aldrich and Underwood bills.

Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother

The fourth commandment places on children the duty of honoring, loving, reverencing and obeying their parents, and that is not sin. God includes other persons than our parents in nature. Parents in a general sense, may be taken to mean all who in this world represent our Father in heaven. In a particular sense, children must regard as parents those who are their parents in grace. Their position, the cause of their spiritual life. They must honor their parents in temporal things. The president, governor, mayor, judge and other civil authorities. They must look upon teachers, employers and other superiors as holding the place of parents. They must especially honor and love those who have grown grey with age.

Back Feel Lame, Sore and Achy?

Are you lame every morning? Do you drag through the day with a body aching, backache, swelling, find you "fall played out"? Probably your kidneys are to blame. Hurry, worry, lack of rest and a heavy diet, all tend to weaken the kidneys. Your back gives out; you feel depressed and suffer headaches, dizziness and kidney troubles. Don't go from bad to worse. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Home Talkers recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

HERE'S A PORTSMOUTH CASE: A. Chas. Green, painter and paperhanger, 241 1/2 St. says: "Suffering was very hard on my back as I got catches through my kidneys. When in a stooping position, I could hardly get again. I felt tired and run down and could hardly move. My kidneys acted too freely and had me up at night. Doan's Kidney Pills purchased at the best Cross Drug Store did me of the trouble."

To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance

Take Nuxated Iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. The dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent to one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the body, while metallic iron is just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Over 100,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Be sure of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters "N. I." on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

HOW TO KEEP WHITE CLOTHES FROM TURNING GREY

Haven't you often wondered why your white clothes sometimes have a dingy, grey look? Almost always it is because you haven't rinsed them thoroughly—and it is next to impossible to rinse clothes clean if you don't use the right kind of soap.

Soaps that do not dissolve completely leave little sticky, greasy particles on the clothes. You just can't rinse these off.

A soap like Rinso dissolves completely. When you soak your clothes in Rinso suds there are no little bits of undissolved soap left to hold the dirt. You can rinse out all the dirty, sudsy water.

Then, too, with Rinso there is no hard rubbing. It soaks out all but the most ground-in dirt.

Use Rinso and your clothes will always be snowy white—without that grey look that makes you ashamed to hang them out.

Two New Comics And Bigger Feature Supplement For The Sunday Sun-Times

ADDITION to its already elaborate colored supplement, The Sunday Sun and Times will appear next Sunday with two brand new full-page comics and two new feature story pages. The comics are "Just Boy" and "Tools and Casper."

They are considered among the best obtainable and will add materially to The Sunday Sun and Times staff of humorous entertainers.

These "funny pages" as the youngsters are in the habit of calling them, combined with "Bringing Up Father," "The Katzenjammer Kids," "Down on the Farm," and "Little Jimmy," give The Sunday Sun and Times readers a most pretentious comic supplement and one that compares favorably with those of the largest papers in the country. Joining the six comic pages there will be six other feature pages in The Sunday Sun and Times supplement when it appears next Sunday in its new Easter attire.

There will be features to please the tastes of the most exacting readers. Here is the list of attractions selected with care and considered the best procurable:

"What Science Has Discovered About the City Grid," "The Mystery of the Royal Love Trial at Potsdam," "Does the 'Waiting at the Church' Epidemic Mean that Love is Going Bankrupt?" "How I Keep My Figure and My First Love," "Full Page of Fashions (in colors)," "Complete Page of Science."

REVIVAL SERVICES

How Many Foundations Are There?

After a great song service by the Junior choir who outdid themselves last night at First Christian, Rev. N. E. Culbertson sang a song that he had written in collaboration with E. J. Macdonald, former pastor of First Christian. This song was all the more appreciated because of the fact that a large number of the folks knew the authors so well.

The audience was extra large for Monday night.

Rev. Culbertson stated that his sermon would be brief, that on account of the physical exhaustion after a hard service on the Lord's day that Monday had become to be known among Ministers as "Blue Monday."

When he read the scripture from the 23rd chapter of Isaiah, then turning to the New Testament he read the text of the evening on which he based his arguments. In 1 Cor. 3rd chapter and 11th verse, "Whether therefore ye be planted, or whether ye be sown, ye shall be gathered together unto me, as branches which are joined to the vine, and ye shall bring forth much fruit."

With this for a start, Rev. Culbertson began his discourse and without making a great amount of his own comments he simply turned the sermon almost entirely into a quotation from the book. He said: "Like an echo from the Old Testament page comes the words of Paul in the language of the text, 'Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone of sure foundation.'"

Let us turn to secular history and we find the heathen philosophers, Plato, Aristotle, and many others, all saying that the early Christians were wrong in their belief that they were building upon a foundation.

"I want no more honestly or honestly inductively to other foundations than this. Did you ever see a building that he can wrap himself in?"

the folks to travel and the people he loved in them, thousands, yes millions of them were turned away from the true way of God, from the truth. Other millions we are told in the Old Testament built upon the foundation of Babel and the foundations crumbled in ruin before the mighty power of God. John Baptist was sent from God. He denials frankly and boldly with the folks that came to him. I hear him saying to those serious and pious folks who had come to him, "Oh, ye generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath that is to come, bring ye forth fruits meet for repentance. A change of life, ye snakes in the grass, do your part wholeheartedly if you expect to be saved. What a time our Lord had with these same folks. I do not want to be harsh with folks, but it is not me that speaketh, it is the book, the word of the living God that is speaking to you as he spoke to them. The Master called them whited sepulchers, full of dead men's bones, and ye think ye have eternal life but they are they which testify of me. Ye would not reject me if ye read their right. If you were truly searching the scriptures for knowledge you would know about the Savior, you would know about me. You are building upon a false foundation."

Let us turn to secular history and we find the heathen philosophers, Plato, Aristotle, and many others, all saying that the early Christians were wrong in their belief that they were building upon a foundation.

"I want no more honestly or honestly inductively to other foundations than this. Did you ever see a building that he can wrap himself in?"

his text 1 Thos. 47—"For God hath not called us into uncleanness, but into holiness," and delivered a very helpful message to the Christians, as well as those who were not.

This evening Rev. Severinghaus will have charge of the singing, a ladies' chorus will sing, and Mrs. Smith will bring the message. Mrs. Smith has been in evangelistic work with her husband, Rev. Anna Smith, for about twenty years, and since his death a year ago has continued the work. Those who have heard Mrs. Smith in her afternoon meetings know there is a treat in store for all who come. Mrs. Smith will speak at the church on Wednesday and Friday at 2:30 p. m., and to the women of all the churches at the U. B. church on Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

To Assist Dr. Knapp

Russell E. Kauffman, who has been associated with Dr. W. A. Knapp, the evangelist in charge of the special revival meetings at the United Brethren Church, will arrive in Portsmouth this evening to assist in the meetings of the last week of the local campaign. For the past two weeks Mr. Kauffman has been engaged in a great campaign in an Indiana City and the local committee is quite fortunate in securing his services for this week leading up to the culmination of the campaign on Easter Sunday.

In addition to his great ability as a singer and leader of song, Mr. Kauffman is an ideal worker among children and young people. Beginning Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock he will conduct special meetings for the boys and girls every afternoon, and parents are urged to send their children to these meetings.

Mr. Kauffman will be present to lead the singing at the service to-night when one of the largest crowds of the campaign is expected to hear the Evangelist speak on "The Second Coming of Christ."

Romans 8:23, "The wages of sin is death."

There is possibly no other text in the Bible that has been used with more frequency or telling effect than this with which the Rev. W. C. Millikan ushered in the beginning of the end of the series of special meetings, which have been running for the past two weeks.

While Manager Moran has not announced his first day battery, Rizer and Wingo undoubtedly will get the early Rizer has always been of effective and is in good shape.

Manager Kilmer has not made known his boxing choice, but speculation says it will be none other than Alexander, who always gives the Reds endless trouble. It is going to be a real diamond struggle and of course many Portsmouth fans will be on hand to root for the Moran men as they are loyal to Cincinnati and its team no matter where it finishes.

BOY SCOUT BASEBALL SEASON OPENS WEDNESDAY

"Play Ball" will be yelled in Redland on Wednesday, opening the season there, and Portsmouth will not be behind the times, her baseball season opening at York Park, when Umpire Joe Brennan yells "Play Ball" and opens the Boy Scout baseball leagues with a game between the Archery-Rifle Troop and Troop 29.

The Scouts will run off two baseball leagues this spring, the Junior League, composed of Scouts 16 years and under, and the Boy Scout League composed of Scouts of any age.

The question of umpiring, which has been one of the vexatious problems in previous years, has been very effectively settled by having Joe Brennan, chairman of the Athletic Committee, umpire the games. He will be able not only to settle any disputed plays on the spot, but also questions of eligibility as well.

The ball to be used in the Junior League is a classy one, retailing at $1.75. It is the standard Junior League ball, the United States over. It is half an inch less in circumference, and one ounce lighter than the standard ball, and can be used very effectively. The Scouts who have examined the new ball, are delighted with it.

The regular ball will be used in the Boy Scout League.

The games will be played on the York Park and also on the Children's Home diamonds. The Boy Scout

League will play only on Thursday

REDS HANDED LEMON IN TRADE; SEEK CANCELLATION

BOSTON, April 11.—Cancellation

of the trade by which Cincinnati gave to the Braves Pitcher Babe Marquand and Shortstop Larry Kopf in exchange for Pitcher John Scott is said to be under consideration by Owner Herrmann and Manager Moran of the Reds.

The fact that Scott's pitching arm has been bad all spring has caused the Reds to question whether the Braves' management knew his condition when the trade was made. Manager Mitchell, of the Boston team, said there was no reason to doubt Scott's condition at the time. Cincinnati regretted the deal an hour after it was made, he said.

The Red management is reported to be gathering facts for submission to Commissioner Landis. Scott has been questioned. He is reported to have said that his arm troubled him slightly in one game toward the close of last season and that he had to abandon a barnstorming trip because of it. He has no reason to believe that the Boston management knew it, however, he is said to have told the Cincinnati officials.

DEMPSEY'S HIGH SPOTS

JACK DEMPSEY is 26 years of age and has been fighting eight years.

Dempsey was knocked out by Jim Flynn in one round in 1917. Rumor has it that Jack picked a soft spot to take the count.

He later returned the compliment by stopping Flynn in one round.

With a few exceptions Dempsey has won every fight during the last three years by the K. O. route.

Dempsey first sprang into real prominence by knocking out Jesse Willard, thereby winning the heavyweight championship. This bout was staged at Toledo July 4, 1919.

His most recent bout was the Carpentier contest at Jersey City July 2, 1921, in which he finished Carpentier in the fourth round.

In his bout with Willard Dempsey received only $27,500, Willard getting $100,000.

In the Carpentier fight Dempsey received the biggest sum ever paid a fighter, being guaranteed $300,000. Carpentier received $200,000.

Since no white fighter looks up as a contender, since the elimination of Tommy Gibbons by Harry Greb, Dempsey has decided not to draw the color line.

Smith Earns Regular Berth

According to E. W. (Bud) Gableman, who has seen the Washington team in action a great deal this spring Outfielder Earl Smith of this city has earned a regular berth in that team's outfield. Earl has been fielding and batting in brilliant form and now that the highly touted Goetz has gone south, Earl will get his job and will more than make good.

JACK DEMPSEY IS OFF FOR EUROPE

NEW YORK, April 11.—Jack Dempsey, with notable persons of various walks of life as fellow voyagers, was a passenger on the Aquitania, sailing today for England. Dempsey has not been engaged to meet any of the European heavyweights while abroad, although he said he would not be averse to accepting a reasonable offer. He expects to spend three months in Europe.

Tendler Disqualified

NEW YORK, April 11.—Low Tendler, Philadelphia lightweight, was disqualified for fouling in the seventh round of his match with Charlie Potts of Australia. The referee awarded the decision to Potts.

In Two Rounds

Over in Youngstown last night Billy Misker, who is staging a real come back, knocked out Billy Shade in the second round.

WILLS' HIGH SPOTS

HARRY WILLS is 29 years of age and has been fighting 12 years.

Has been twice knocked out, Sam Langford turning the trick each time once in 14 rounds, the other in 19.

Has met Langford in 15 bouts, ranging from 6 to 20 rounds. All of them resulted in a draw or no decision except one 20-round contest won by Wills.

During the past two years he has won practically all his fights over the knock-out route.

His most recent victory was scored at the expense of Kid Norfolk, who suffered a quick knockout.

Wills is Dempsey's equal physically. As a matter of fact, he has a slight edge over the champion.

Fred Fulton is the only fighter of prominence who has met both Dempsey and Wills.

This bout offers little opportunity for comparison, since Fulton was no match for either fighter, suffering a quick knockout in each bout.

Underwoods Are Champions

The championship in the Buckeye Valley Ball League was decided Monday evening when the Underwoods took three games from the other players. The Cleaners, who played hard to oust the Underwoods from the title position.

The Cleaners took the floor badly being present only two of the regulars. They played with fire and managed to run up a score of 17 in one game with Carey Williams starting at the net and Keener passing them up in five style.

On the other hand the Underwoods were cool and played position all the way through Milford and Hubbard dropping them into hole on the other side of the net.

GRAMMAR AND TONGUE

SCHOOL children who struggle in their grammar lessons with such terrifying octopi as "attributive complement," "predicative adjective," "anticipatory verb," and other equally mystifying specimens of grammar on the subject, "English grammar, as it is now taught, should be dropped entirely from our schools."

Against the formal teaching of grammar as a "thing of laws, rules, ordinances, by-laws and exceptions: an unsentimental, inflexible dictum, which forces children to decline nouns in cases which do not exist, to conjugate verbs in tenses, moods and voices which long since have ceased to be, and to make adjectives agree with nouns when agreement is neither necessary nor possible"—against all this emphasizing of the letter and killing of the spirit the writer makes a strong case.

Perhaps the discarding of mental gymnastics would come as a relief to the teacher no less than to the pupil. Almost every teacher who is at all familiar with the speech habits of school children outside of the class room has seen the futility of empty drilling and parrot-like reciting of the grammar hour. It is now admitted on all sides that we have in the past over-emphasized parsing and conjugating and that more recent device for the torture of the school child's mind, known as diagramming. This is evidenced by the fact that the teaching of grammar as it was practiced 25 or 30 years ago has been supplanted in a large measure by methods less irksome and more fruitful to both teacher and pupil.

We can not afford to be less diligent in our efforts to correct slovenly speech habits and to preserve the purity and effectiveness of a language in which is written so much of the world's best literature, and which is the most widely used tongue in the world. If it is our intention to preserve the English language, and not merely to pad a school curriculum, it should be impressed upon the pupil that cultural and commercial opportunity depends in a great part on one's knowledge of his mother tongue and on a desire to use this knowledge to the best of his ability. Slovenly speech, the pupil should be made to understand, is as likely to bring the user of it into disrepute as is slovenly appearance in the matter of clothes. To this end the home can greatly assist the school.

WOMAN'S INTUITION A MYTH?

WHAT has become of woman's intuition, of which so much formerly was heard? Surely it should be of incalculable value to her in political life if it is anything like the unerring instinct which it has been credited with being. And no wonder that men, if they really believe in womanly intuition, should fear her as a political antagonist. By its aid elections will no longer be gamble and guesswork until the last vote is counted, as heretofore, but the intuition of woman will not only enable her to select the right candidate at all times, but always to predict correctly the result of an election.

But with the entrance of woman into public affairs her intuition seems to be forgotten. Perhaps this is her penalty for changing her sphere, and perhaps the intuition was only an imaginary attribute, one of the fantastic qualities with which the human animal is fond of deluding itself and others.

Now that women have come into the open, the real test of woman's intuition is at hand. Either it must make good and show that it is something more accurate than the reading of cards by a gypsy or the sayings of spirits through the trance of a medium. It will be an interesting experiment to note how womanly intuition will stand the test of political life, or if it will stand it at all.

THE REPUTATION BUILDERS

HAVE you ever been in a store where you felt in your bones that it was necessary to keep one hand on your watch and the other on your pocketbook, and where the goods offered for sale convinced you that if you spent a dollar you would be making a bet with the proprietor, with all the odds in his favor, that he couldn't skim you? Did you ever buy merchandise with the firm conviction that if it proved defective, if you found out when you got home that it was not what it was represented to be, you couldn't get your money back?

If you have had these experiences, you have probably been dealing with a non-advertiser. The advertiser is a man who has invested a certain amount in reputation. Generally, he expects that if he sells to you once, he will sell to you again. To make his advertising pay, he must give you a square deal. Sometimes he even spends more to get you into his store the first time than the profit on the first sale amounts to. And yet he gains in the long run, because he knows that if you buy the first time on his solicitation you will buy the second and third times of your own accord.

We don't say that every merchant who doesn't advertise is a cheat. We say that the safest way to avoid being cheated is to patronize merchants who have a reputation to sustain.

Every regular newspaper advertiser is engaged in building up a reputation for fair dealing. His faith in himself justifies you in having faith in him.

FAILURE AND SUCCESS

ARE you discouraged by failure? Then you will fail. Most of the little failures and little successes are unimportant skirmishes in the battle of life. They are the maneuvering, the testing of the opposing lines, the finding of weak spots and strong spots.

In the hour of skirmish lost, or in the hour of skirmish won, it is well to remember that the great battle is yet to be fought. The man who is stricken in heart by little defeats and the man who is puffed in mind by little victories will be on a par when the real test comes.

Our little failures and little successes are about equally willing to serve us. They will be very useful if we give them the chance. But if we see no other help, as the gift of fate and circumstance, we might as well quit the fight.

The man who, in defeat, can put his finger on the cause of his defeat—the where, the why, the how of it—is already well on the road to ultimate victory.

And the man who, in victory, knows how to win and where, will win again, and more gloriously.

If a woman's intuition in regard to another woman is usually accurate it may be she also knows what she is doing if she were in the other woman's place.

Secretary of Labor Davis says profiteering in coal during the strike is not justified. But opportunity, not justification, is what the profiteer seeks.

THE BIBLE IN PICTURES AND TEXT

By HELEN E. OHRENSCHALL

PHARAOH'S DREAM

PHARAOH had a dream, he dreamed he stood by the river, there came up seven kine well favoured and fat, afterward, seven ill favoured kine. Again he dreamed, seven good ears of corn came up on one stalk, afterward, seven withered ones which devoured the full ears. None of the magicians could interpret these dreams, the butler remembered Joseph, told Pharaoh about him. Pharaoh sent for Joseph who said, "God meant to show there would be seven years of plenty, afterward, seven years of scarcity." Pharaoh gave Joseph power over Egypt. He went throughout the land storing food and corn.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, April 11.—Broadway's forgotten beauties never tire of seeking the glare that haloes the glided lane. The professional death that rushes so breathlessly to them never blights their hopes. They vanish for a time to return in new settings.

Perhaps a gown shop with a French name, a beauty parlor or a hat store, the windows filled with autographed pictures of former friends who send best wishes. And at last the final curtain, the benefit, Broadway is unfurling in bestowing its largeness at the benefit.

It gives the street a chance to chant its favorite song, "I knew her when," Evelyn Nesbit still struggles against the enveloping tide in her tea shop. May Yohn bloom in a cozy little entry for a few days then locked the doors.

Still others who once received the White Way's fleeting fan-lare act as hostesses in the dancing clubs, receiving a percentage of the concert charges from those they bring into the place. All were girls fed to Broadway from the smaller cities. They came thrilling to the high hope of Youth and Broadway welcomes youth in its flicker embrace at all times. The roses float on top, the thorns beneath and happiness lies

Just around the corner.

Near the Metropolitan opera house stands a shady restaurant. Local chroniclers have given it much space at various times for its spicy atmosphere. Into its smoke laden stability the other night came two women, caddy from drink.

They got up to dance with chance escorts but when they reached the floor the orchestra stopped—Broadway's warning to the forbidden guest. Yet when the proprietor opened his resort eight years ago he drew his first crowd by heralding the news that the same two women, then at the pinnacle of their careers, would be the guests of honor.

He is a playwright who invariably goes on a terrific bender after the launching of his play. Then he goes to a drink cure to fit himself for his next efforts. "It used to be" he told me the other day, "that my friends when they found me suffering from over-indulgence would suggest a mild sedative as a brace in the morning. Now it is different. In my latest disposition I was invited to at least a hundred places where I could get a bust in the arm." He meant by that a hypodermic injection of morphine.
